Eddie Bayo-Eduardo Perez-Robert Morrow?

Mr. Bayo or whatever is his real name, circled with members of 'Operation Red-Cross' which was financed by 'Life" magizine.

Right: Eddie Bayo, aka Perez, was hard-bitten, fearless. He claimed to have a guerrilla unit operating in Cuba.

Below: Strike team personnel being towed to atoll from PBY.

Above: Luis Cantin, Alfredo Mir and Bayo disembark PBY into rubber raft. Note PBY identification numbers on fuselage which are difficult to identify from negative or contact proof.

Below: Martino and Bayo with supplies and weapons on atoll. Deny Regals, center, holds Belgian F.N. assault rifle. In foreground, note M-2 carbine with paratrooper stock. Fate of strike team is still a mystery.

Below: This barren, unnamed atoll served as transfer point for personnel. Flying Tiger II, with CIA agents, Pawley, Life personnel, and Martino returned to this atoll awaiting word from Bayo. None came.
